Frank Porter, 14 Years Old, Artist-Sculptor, in Topeka.

Assisting Merrill Gage in Modeling Lincoln Bust.

TALENTED AS A MUSICIAN

Wins Honors in Unusual Ability and Talent in K. C.

Boy Adopted as an Orphan at the Age of 9.

Five years ago Frank Porter of Kansas City was an orphan, without a name, in the state home at Atchison. Today in Topeka, at 14 years, he is assisting Merrill Gage in modeling a bust of Abraham Lincoln which will be placed in the state house. The distinction is the result of talent the boy has shown during his five years residence in Kansas City, as an expert in modeling, drawing and sketching and as a musician of unusual ability.

Five years ago Mrs. Florence Porter went to the orphans home to adopt a child. Her attention was drawn to Frank, an unusually bright appearing boy, 9 years old. He was only too glad to find a mother.

The boy was taken to Kansas City and his education was begun. He proved to be an apt scholar. But other things aside from the regular school work interested him.

One evening, running his finger over the carved design of a sewing machine, he said: "Mother, if I had one of those burning sets, I could make that myself."

These gentlemen of course do not expect to piease the cranky prohibition element in the Republican party but they expect to be able to satisfy them in some way or other. The main object of the omission however is to placate the Republican resulmission element which made itself felt last fall by voting for Robinson.

great sale and a different sort of an event from the average sale of its kind. Each year it brings forth in a consistent way only such furniture as is known to be of a reliable quality, at savings not apparent in figures only, but which actually exist, and are appreciated more and more by the purchaser as the years roll on and on.

This Year's Sale Should Prove the Best of Them All

Good merchandise never fails to tell its own story in its own good way. We can say or write nothing about it that will make it better or worse. There is only one way you can appreciate the quality and desirableness in proportion to price of the thousands of pieces we offer, and that is to see them and judge the accuracy of our statements yourself.

It is a sale that holds something worth while for every home—for the newly married couple—for those who have a whole house to refurnish, and for those who need just a piece or two. As usual, everything we carry in the furniture department with the exception of Sealy Mattresses and Gunn Sectional Bookcases, will be yours to select from at savings running from 10 to 50 Per Cent Off. The news here gives but a mere idea of what the sale offers.
